

RESURRECT LIFE

Jesus did it, his apostles preached it, disciples share about it...
What about you?

Rod Adamson ministers at George Presbyterian Church, Western Cape. His B.Theol degree (UDW) specialised in Biblical Studies, Doctrine and Pastoring, Missions and Religions. He was ordained in 1986 in Mutare, Zimbabwe. While teaching inner city school in Johannesburg 1989-1996 he completed HED (UNISA) and continued BA studies in English, Economics and Religious Studies, and co-founded UNITED CHURCH SCHOOL, Yeoville (25th anniversary in 2015). Rod returned to full-time pastoring in 1996 with a wider discipling (educational) specialisation. He married Colleen in 1999, a maths and music teacher who brings in her own life, Christian faith, ministry, and educational perspectives. They have one daughter.

One modern secular trend writes off all religion as myth to leave out Jesus' Resurrection. Even the Protestant Reformation is written out of Western history to exalt the largely elitist Renaissance humanism as fountain of democracy and progress in the West, yet lay-voting majoritarian Protestant churches had led real gathering of modern people into the democratic way. Rod shares Jesus' burden for real non-myth faith in modern globalist Africans if lasting progress in individual faith, democratic development and prosperity is to emerge, believing that evangelical 'don't-do-myth' Christian theology is essential part. Building God's African Church by breaking through similar 'blindsighted' humanisms to enable God's insights to lead, remains God's plan.
